Nomenclature & Glossary (Landscaping)

ROUGH BLOCK, AS QUARRIED

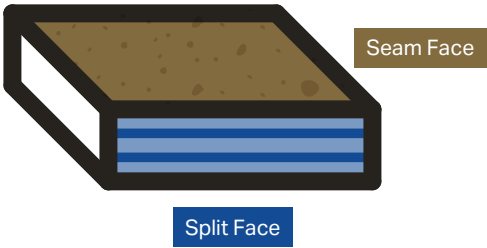

Seam Face (or Bed Face)

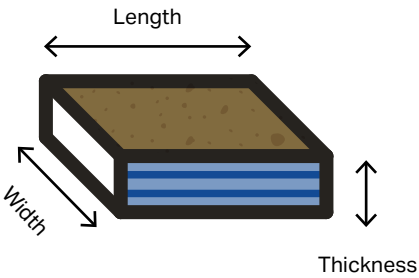

Also called weathered face, when exposed to the elements.

Split Face (or Ashlar Face)

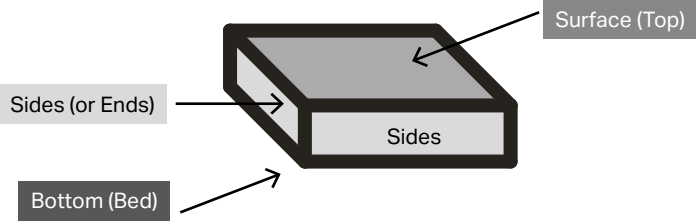

Displays the various stone layers (stratification).

For all landscaping elements, the tables in this document show the dimensions of the stones when placed on the ground.

The faces of the landscaping elements are identified as follows:

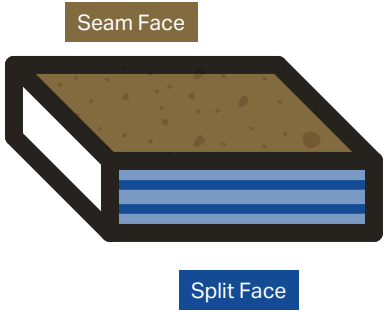

Important : Our photos and samples provide a general overview of the color and texture of our products. Natural stone is very unique and presents variations in tones, colors, veining and textures. That's Ducharme's irresistible natural charm!
